Last Minute SAT Prep-Quick Tips, Techniques & Review, 16-18 yrs.

Susan Larik from SusanPrep.com

RLCC

Wish you had prepared for the SAT, but you were just too busy? Want to improve a previous score, but you haven't had much time to study? Feel well-prepared, but you'd like a review? This class will be a "highlight reel" of the best tips, techniques, and review concepts we can fit into a single session. For the reading and writing test sections, we'll explore strategies for approaching each type of question--including the essay. You'll learn how to rule out more incorrect answers--and increase your probability of selecting the right answers--even when you feel unsure. We'll discuss patterns and recurring questions in the test. For math, we'll review common concepts that almost always appear on the test. We'll also do sample questions for each section, so you can see how the strategies apply. (Study materials packet included in class fee.) 1 class.

NEW How to Ace the Interview, High School/College Edition, 15-21 yrs.

Susan Larik, SusanPrep.com

RLCC

Whether you're interviewing for a part-time job, a college, or a scholarship now, or an internship or full-time job in the future, it's important to be prepared. This workshop will teach you how to do it! You'll learn how to prepare for an interview, and how to tackle the questions most frequently asked by prospective employers. We'll talk about how to sell yourself and your background, how to conquer interview nervousness, and how to "close" the interview. We'll also discuss resumes and cover letters, and you'll get a head start on building your resume during the class session. We'll spend the last part of the class doing mock interviews (volunteers only!) so you can put what you have learned into practical use. Learn valuable skills that you'll use throughout your career and your life!
